High season? Contact Gala Holidays for a quotation.

- Starting fares use low-season travel and the lowest available airline booking class. Approximately mid-May to mid-August, December holidays and hotel peak periods require a new quote. Flights, hotels, room categories, stay sequence and bonuses are subject to confirmation.
- Airfare includes airport taxes and fuel surcharges. All three choices include 7 consecutive nights at one selected hotel, 1 additional Fullerton night and the Ngong Ping 360 return ticket. International flying time is additional.
- Independent travel; no fixed guided tour. Meals, airport and inter-hotel transfers, and other activities are not listed as inclusions. Cable car operation, weather and ticket conditions apply.
- Bed preferences are requests. Ask about children, extensions or other arrangements. An enquiry is not a confirmed booking or payment. Gala Holidays confirms the final total and terms.
