SUNDAY DEPARTURES
2027 · Minimum two guests*

FROM US$1,649
per person · twin sharing · land only

Begin with the capital’s palace courtyards and neighbourhood life, then take the KTX south to Busan. Coastal colour gives way to Gyeongju’s royal heritage, Andong’s traditional houses and Seoraksan’s mountain landscape - a six-day journey that brings very different sides of Korea into one route.

The journey, day by day

YOUR JOURNEY

Arrival transfer included.
Check-in after 3:00 p.m.
No scheduled sightseeing.

01 / Sunday · Incheon / Seoul

Arrive, settle in, let Seoul come to you.

Meet the representative on arrival at Incheon International Airport for your transfer to Seoul. Hotel check-in is available after 3:00 p.m. There is no scheduled sightseeing today. The rest of the day is at leisure, giving you time to settle in before tomorrow’s city discoveries.

STAY The Link Seoul Hotel or similar (4-star) MEALS No meals included

02 / Monday · Seoul

Royal spaces, neighbourhood stories.

Meet your guide in the hotel lobby at 8:40 a.m. The planned route begins at Gyeongbokgung Palace, then continues through Bukchon Hanok Village and Insadong, with the National Museum of Korea and Myeongdong completing the city day. The contrast is the attraction: grand palace architecture, traditional streets and contemporary city life. Operating conditions can require an alternative route; the named substitutes below are alternatives, not extra guaranteed visits. Gyeongbokgung is the planned Monday palace visit.

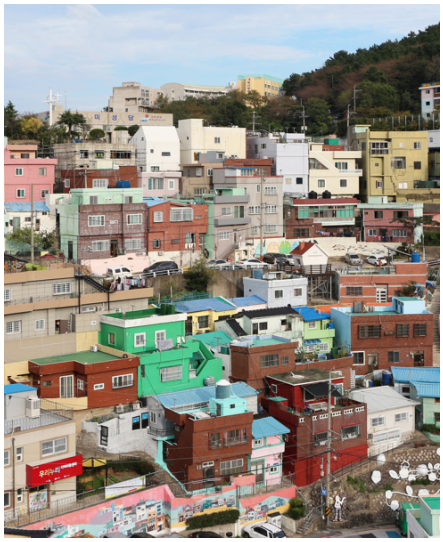

STAY The Link Seoul Hotel or similar (4-star) MEALS Breakfast included

Seoul sightseeing alternatives

The planned Monday palace visit is Gyeongbokgung. Operating substitutions may include the Royal Guard Changing Ceremony, National Folk Museum, Korean Ginseng Center, Namsangol Hanok Village or N Seoul Tower instead of elements of the primary route. They are alternatives, not additional guaranteed visits.

03 / Tuesday · Seoul / Busan / Gyeongju

By rail to the coast, by road into history.

Transfer to Seoul Station after breakfast for the included KTX to Busan. The scheduled train time is 8:30-11:10 a.m., subject to final confirmation. Join the coach at noon in front of Toyoko Inn Busan Station No. 1. Jagalchi Market and BIFF Square introduce Busan’s old downtown, while Gamcheon’s colourful hillsides, Haeundae Beach and Dongbaek Park reveal its changing coastal character. Continue to Gyeongju for the night. Included Seoul-Busan KTX · Final train time reconfirmed.

04 / Wednesday · Gyeongju / Andong / Pyeongchang

Temple craftsmanship, a village still lived in.

Visit Bulguksa Temple and Gyeongju National Museum after breakfast. Architecture and collections offer two ways into the region’s cultural past. At Andong Hahoe Village, the focus turns to traditional houses and a community that remains part of everyday life. Continue to Pyeongchang for your overnight stay.

STAY Ramada Hotel PyeongChang or similar (4-star) MEALS Breakfast included

Train, transfers and optional cable car

The Seoul-Busan KTX timetable and airport transfers are reconfirmed before travel. Day-five transport from the Seoul drop-off point to the hotel is not confirmed as included. Optional Gwongeumseong cable car: US$20 per person, subject to confirmation and operation.
