01 / Sunday · Seoul / Gongju / Jeonju

Royal history, traditional rooftops.

Meet your guide at 8:00 a.m. in the parking lot in front of Donghwa Duty Free Shop at Gwanghwamun. Journey to Gongju for King Muryeong’s Tomb and Gongsanseong Fortress, two encounters with the Baekje kingdom’s legacy. Continue to Jeonju Hanok Village, where traditional houses and tiled rooflines bring the day to a more intimate scale. Check into your hotel and enjoy free time.

02 / Monday · Jeonju / Gwangju / Suncheon / Yeosu

A reflective morning, a southern garden landscape.

After breakfast, visit Gwangju’s May 18th National Cemetery before continuing to Suncheon Bay National Garden. The journey moves from modern history to planted landscapes and open views. Continue to Yeosu for Yi Sun-sin Plaza and your overnight stay. On the garden’s last-Monday closure, Naganeupseong Folk Village or Suncheon Drama Film Set replaces the garden visit.

03 / Tuesday · Yeosu / Busan / Gyeongju

Busan, between hillside streets and sea.

Travel to Busan for Jagalchi Market and BIFF Square, then Gamcheon Culture Village. The colourful hillside setting provides a contrast to the old downtown. Continue to Haeundae Beach and Dongbaek Park before travelling to Gyeongju. Pickup stops for joining passengers may be made en route, consistent with the shared-coach format.

04 / Wednesday · Gyeongju / Andong / Pyeongchang

Silla craftsmanship, Joseon village life.

Visit Bulguksa Temple and Gyeongju National Museum to explore the cultural heritage of the Silla kingdom. Temple architecture and historic collections provide complementary perspectives. At Andong Hahoe Village, traditional houses and the preserved settlement remain part of a living community. Continue to Pyeongchang, host of the 2018 Winter Olympics, for your final overnight stay.

05 / Thursday · Pyeongchang / Seoraksan / Seoul

Mountains and temple, then home to Seoul.

Drive via the 2018 Winter Olympic venues toward Seoraksan National Park. Visit Sinheungsa Temple in its mountain setting; the Gwongeumseong cable car is an optional extra. Return to Seoul, finishing at Donghwa Duty Free Shop, Gwanghwamun, at approximately 6:00 p.m. October bus restrictions and traffic can affect park access, so review the walking advisory before booking.

Other scheduled Sunday departures are general season. All dates are in 2027 and subject to availability.

Included: 4 hotel nights, twin sharing, at the listed hotels or similar; 4 hotel breakfasts; scheduled ground transportation; English-Korean bilingual guiding and specified admissions.
Additional: Flights, lunches and dinners, insurance, optional admissions and unlisted services are extra.

Optional arrangements: Gwongeumseong cable car: US$20 per person. Optional; subject to operation and confirmation.

Important itinerary advisories: Suncheon Bay National Garden closes on the last Monday of each month; Naganeupseong Folk Village or Suncheon Drama Film Set is substituted. In October peak season, buses may park at C District Square, requiring an approximately 3.6 km walk to the Seoraksan park entrance. Local traffic may prevent the park visit. Discuss mobility requirements before booking.

Booking: Reserve at least seven Korean working days before departure. Changes require at least 14 Korean working days. KST applies, excluding Korean weekends/public holidays. Hotels and routing may change for local conditions. Unused services are non-refundable.

Gala Holidays cancellation terms: Cancel in writing to bill@galaholiday.com. At 60 or more days before departure, the deposit is forfeited; at 30-59 days, 50% of the total package price; at 15-29 days, 75%; and less than 15 days, 100% (no refund). Deposit amount varies by package. Full terms and conditions apply.
